Two condos at a yet-to-be-built tower along the Intracoastal Waterway in West Palm Beach are under contract for nearly $15 million each, which would set a price record if they close.

The penthouse units are on the 25th floor of the Bristol Palm Beach condo project, says Chris Leavitt, director of sales for the ritzy condo and an agent at Douglas Elliman. One is under contract for $14.99 million, the other for $14.7 million.

The units average $2,306 per square foot, a high-water mark for West Palm Beach condos.

The Bristol, at 1100 S. Flagler Drive, is scheduled to begin construction next year. Units start at $5 million.

The current record for a closed condo deal in West Palm Beach is $7.4 million, for a unit at One Watermark Place.
